THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER. SILK, WOOL, PROSPECTUS THE NEW YORK LEDGER. We intend to make the NEW YORK LEDGER for '61 superior to that er '80, or of any other year in the past. Among our contributors will be the President of the United States, Edward Eve-ett, Grorge Bancroft, William Cullen Bryant, John G. Saxe, George P. Morris, N. P. Willis, George D. Whether it be popular romanes, scientific essay, historical sketch, scholastic disquisition. spicy paragraph, paragraph, pa-thetic ballad, he morous poem, eld-fashloned love story, timely editorial, or any other in-gredient of popular and elevated journalism, that is to be furnished, the LEDGER corps will be sufficient for the task. In fact, our contribuors will send as from week to week much more matter than we can possibly use, so that we shall always have a fresh and superabundant supply, from which to select the very meet. These facis, taken in connection with our largely increased means, facilities, and experience, warrant us, we think, in promising our readers a family paper for the year '61 which will be more interesting and instructive, and in every respect more valuable, even than the LEDGER has been in the past.

As an indication of the popularity of the LEDGER, we need only state the simple fact that its circult tion is larger than, that of any other TEN literary popularity in the country. Its great success is owing to the fact that we secure the best writers in the country, and spare no expense in getting up the sest ramily rapes—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted reputation of its ributers, the practical and invaribly pure and healthy character of all its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appearits columns, and the superi ority of its Tales and Sketches, have gained for the NEW-YORK LEDGER a position that no Anna Cora Ritchie, of Richmond, Va., and Col. Walter B. Dunlap, the author of the popular "Forest Sketches," which were published in our columns some time since, will each be gig a stery in the LEDGER early in the new year.

Mrs. Southweath is also engaged upon a new State of Indiana, Vigo County, sa Vigo Circuit Court, March Term, 1861. In the next number of the LEDGER, we shall No. 1313. Mary M. Hite vs. Alexander P.
